

LEARN ABOUT JOURNALISM

Society of Professional Journalists

<http://www.spj.org/>

Journalists' professional organization founded in 1909 as Sigma Delta Chi fraternity on the DePauw University campus in Greencastle, Indiana. Became professional organization in early 1960s and changed name in 1973.

Poynter Institute

<https://www.poynter.org>

School for journalists founded in 1975 by Nathan Poynter, owner and chairman of the St Petersburg (now Tampa Bay) Times.

Neiman Foundation

<https://nieman.harvard.edu>

The oldest journalism fellowship program in the world, established in 1938. Also publishes Neiman Reports on leadership in journalism and Neiman Storyboard, the art and craft of the story.

Neiman Lab

<https://www.niemanlab.org/>

Founded by Joshua Benton in 2008 and administered by Harvard's Neiman Foundation for Journalism. Focused on moving journalism forward in the digital age.

First Draft News

<https://firstdraftnews.org/>

Independent not-for-profit supporting journalists, academics, and technologists, helping them navigate the modern data world.